Regional Behavior Support Review Committee: What's It All About?

April 24
10:00

Participants will be introduced to the Regional Behavior Support Review Committee (RBSRC) which is a voluntary professional review committee arranged by the Area Behavior Analysts for the Division of DD. The RBSRC chaired by an area Behavior Analyst and comprised of community licensed behavior support providers who volunteer to participate. During this webinar, we will discuss the background and rationale for the creation of a professional peer review committee. Participants will learn the purpose and process of the committee in detail, including how referrals are made and when participation is required.

Presenter: Melantha Witherspoon (Eastern Area Behavior Analyst & Committee Chair) & Rhiannon Evans (Statewide Tiered Supports Coordinator & Committee Member)
